

Sinclair Broadcasting should not be above the law.
I think their broadcasting principles skirt the edge of the law and they should be held accountable. After all, it is the public airways they are using. Doesn't this mean anything?